Kingsley Genealogy by James Luce Kingsley

John Kingsley came from England; probably from the county of Tripe (Fife) or Lancashire to Mass. sometime before the year 1636. In that year Aug. 23, 1636 he was one of seven who constituted the first church in Dorchester. His name on a church record is spelled Kingsley, but in the handwriting of the Rev. Richard Mather, the pastor. He wrote his name as appears in an original letter of his in the office of the Sec. of State; Hartford, Conn. and it is spelled Kingsley.

Stephen Kingsley came to Mass. about the same time. His descendants have spelled the name Kinsley. The tradition is that Stephen was the brother of John.

Elizabeth Kingsley was a member of the church at Dorchester, and was without doubt the wife of John Kingsley. Eldad, their son, was baptized in 1637 or 1638. A child by the name of Renewal Kingsley was baptized at Dorchester in 1644. Under this name is written in the handwriting of the Rev. John Danforth "to Ipswich". John Kingsley had a son named Enoes, who settled in Northampton, Mass. where he was at the time of Phillips war. He died at Rehoboth both in 1679, his age not known.

Eldad, son of John, lived in Rehoboth, where he died Aug. 28, 1679; age about 41. His children were John, Samuel, Jonathan, Mercy and Nathaniel. Of these, John in the year 1704 moved to Scotland Conn. the East Parish in Windham when he was about 40 years old. He took with him his family, consisting of his wife and several children, the eldest of them, Elizabeth, being about 16 years of age. Several of his children died in Scotland, after maturity. He lived on the road between Scotland and Windham, a little west of Beaver Brook on the side hill of the road, about 1 3-4 miles from Scotland meeting house. When I was a child, part of the cellar of his house was still to be seen and several old apple trees standing near it. This John Kingsley died, sitting in his chair, March 17, 1733 at the age of 58. He was buried in the old Scotland burying ground, sometimes called the Palmerton burying, and the stone on his grave was in good preservation in Sept. 1844. At his death, John Kingsley, son of Eldad, left eight children. John, Josiah, Amos, Ezra, Eldad, Tabitha, Elizabeth, and Lydia. Of John, I know nothing. Josiah and Amos were twins. Josiah lived in Scotland, but in what part I never heard. He had a large family if I remember correctly.

Amos, son of John, married Ruth Adams of Canterbury. The birth of their son, Isaiah, is recorded in the Windham town records.

Ezra, son of John was born in Swansey, 1698. He lived in Scotland where he died April 8, 1759 at the age of 61, and was buried near his father. The monument at his grave was standing, uninjured in Sept. 1844. On Dec. 21 he married Elizabeth White. Their children were Ezra, Solman, Elizabeth, Mary, and he had another son Ezra, by a second marriage who I recollect to have seen. He had descendants in Montville, Conn.

Eldad, son of John, married Elizabeth Bath and lived in a part of Lebanon now called Coolumbia. His descendants are numerous.

Tabitha, the daughter of John, married a man by the name of Broughton and removed to Swansea.

Elizabeth, sister to Tabitha, never married. She died in Scotland since my recollection; about a hundred year old.

Lydia, the other sister was born in 1700 and lived untill about 1800. She married a man by the name of Hebard.

Solman, son of Ezra, married Lydia Burgese of Canterbury. Their Children were Nathan, Eunice, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, William, Jonathan, Solman, Lydia, Jerusha, Orin, Stephen, Tryphena. He lived for a number of years in Scotland then moved to East Windsor and later moving to Granville, Mass. and in Sept. 1802, moved to Casenovia, N.Y. where he died in 1812. His wife who was born the same year that he was, died a year before him.

Nathan, son of Solman, (or Salmon) married Roxanna Loomis of Windsor; they lived in Wyoming, Penn. Suffered from the Indians and most of the family were killed by them.

William married a widow, Elizabeth Corning; whose maiden name was Leffingwell. He died in Lomarara, R.I. 1789.

Ebenezer married Frances Bennett of Canterbury and went to Pawlett, Vt. He had a large family of children.

Salmon (or Solman) married Eleanor Smith of Scotland and moved to Ira, Vt. They too, had a large family.

Orin married Huldah Coon of Rhode Island and lived in the neighbor hood of Lake Ontario, near the black river---had ten or twelve children.

Stephen married Rebecca Bidwell of Manchester in 1799. He moved to Casenovia, N.Y. and in 1811 moved to Urbana where he died Feb. 8, 1844 He left several children.

Eunice married Jonothan Breswter (may be misspelled) of Scotland soon after the Revolutionary war. They moved to Middleton Vt. They had a large family.

Jonathan, son of Salmon, married Tillah Luce, widow of James Luce of Scotland. Her maiden name was Tillah Cary. Their children were James Luce, Mary Whiting, Martha, Jonathan. Jonathan Sr. and his wife are both buried in the Scotland burying; south of Scotland meeting house.
